TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scripture Readings: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; Psalm 96:1, 3-5, 7-10;
1 Thessalonians 1:1-5; Matthew 22:15-21

“Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” -Matthew 22:21

It reality, everything belongs to God. We would have nothing if God had not given us the skills, talents and opportunities to accomplish what we accomplish.

Therefore, we have an obligation to return a portion of our gifts to God, for all gifts come from Him and belong to Him.

- This weekend the second collection will go to the repair fund.
- Next Week's Collection. Next Sunday, Pope Benedict XVI calls every Catholic in the world to celebrate our vocation to be missionary: It's Mission Sunday! As Catholics around the world—here at home and in the Missions—gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work: for those awaiting the “Good News” of the Lord's great love and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. We are also to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America, and the Pacific Islands.

SPIRITUAL TIDBITS

Mealtime is convenient for family prayer. If you would like to start this tradition, try praying before the meal begins: Bless us, O Lord, and these, thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty through Christ our Lord. Amen.

And try this prayer after the meal has ended: We give thee thanks for all thy benefits, almighty God, who live and reign forever; and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
